

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is, I believe, a violation of federal election laws.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. This decision, in my opinion, is not in the best interests of the public or our democracy.

Sinclair's actions underline the need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
